The Canvass in Mississippi.
Judging from the tone of the press, says the Petersburg Index, the canvass for Governor in Mississippi is getting very warm. Ames, the military commander, is doing all that his position enables him to do, to secure the election of Alcorn, the Radical candidate. The Conservative party are generally united in the support of Dent, and are sanguine of their ability to elect him, notwithstanding the outside pressure which is invoked to defeat him. We all know what that is, having experienced its full force during the past summer. We triumphed over it then, and trust our Mississippi friends will be agreeably fortunate in their encounter with it this fall.

We publish below a letter written from this city to the STANDARD, signed "Republican." In this, as every instance, they try to smooth over their defeat, by attributing it to some treachery of their own party or rascality of the Conservatives. It certainly contains news that is surprising to us. We are certain, however, that the probability of their carrying old Mecklenburg is a vain delusion, or a kind of salve to ease the sourness of defeat.

"EDITOR STANDARD—Dear Sir: 'We have not the enemy, and we are his'—or, in other words, in the election which took place here on the 7th inst., for Senator to succeed James Osborne, our candidate, Dr. H. M. Pritchard, was beaten by one hundred and eighty-two majority. Jones, the Conservative candidate receiving sixteen hundred and eleven votes and Pritchard, the republican candidate, receiving fourteen hundred and twenty-nine votes.

Our defeat is owing to two or three causes—first, we did not have enough of the "sinews of war"; secondly, the enemy circulated reports through the county that no colored man could vote unless he had paid his taxes—and at some of the boxes, they actually refused to allow colored men to vote on account of not having paid their taxes, until some of our people who were on the ground crammed the law down their throats. One of the boxes in this city, it is said, was opened long before sunrise. The police went from house to house before sunrise, woke people up and hurried them to the polls to vote. Over one hundred and fifty Conservative votes were cast before there was a Republican on the ground—something wrong here. One of the Magistrates is to be indicted for violations of the registration law. Another cause of our defeat, was the treachery of one or two men, who have called themselves Republicans. But 'what if the field be lost, all is not lost.'

We have fifteen hundred fire-branded Republicans in this county, who will never fail us in any emergency. We have demonstrated beyond a shadow of a doubt, that we can carry this county, and we will carry it at the very next election.

"The wrangle in Mecklenburg" is about settled, and hereafter we will present a united front to the enemy. Dr. Pritchard has shown himself, during this canvass to be the foremost man in the Republican party in Western North Carolina. As a speaker, he has no superior in the State, and as a writer, he has few equals in the country. If he had been elected to the State Senate, there would have been a "rattling among the dry-bones" in Raleigh, certain."

Yours, &c.
REPUBLICAN.
Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 9th, 1869.

Highway Robbery.—On Thursday about noon, as two brothers, William and Alfred Bell, merchants of Cumberland, Md., were driving along the old plank-road, a short distance from Barrowville, eight miles from Cumberland, a man jumped from the bushes near the roadside, and catching the horse by the head, drew a revolver, and in true highwayman style demanded their money or their lives. They surrendered what funds they had, some $27, when the robber requested them to give up their watches. Mr. Alfred Bell protested he had no watch, and while the rascal's attention was engaged in observing William pulling his watch out, Alfred made a snatch at the pistol, grasping it over the nipple. In the struggle the hammer fell, catching Alfred between the thumb and forefinger, holding it so firmly that he was dragged from the buggy. Before he could loosen the pistol from his hand and fire upon him the robber had made his escape in the woods. Mr.

Bell has the pistol as a memento.—Who the highwayman was, or where he came from, there is no means of knowing.—Wheeling Register.

DEATH OF JOHN W. CAMERON.—A telegram received in this city on Saturday announced the death of John Walker Cameron, in Savannah, Ga. His disease was brain fever, which proved swiftly fatal in its effects. The deceased was the second son of the late Walker Cameron, of this city, and the only brother of Colonel William E. Cameron, formerly editor of this paper. He was widely known in this community, and enjoyed the respect and friendship of many who will be pained to hear of his sudden demise. It seems but as yesterday that he left us to engage in business in the South, in the full vigor and health of youth, and with the promise of a bright and useful future before him. Alas! that we are so soon called upon to mourn him as lost to us in this world.

His remains will be brought to Petersburg for interment.—Petersburg Index.

SPECIAL COURTS.—We learn from the Standard that his Excellency Gov. Holden has ordered Special Courts to be held in the counties of Robeson and New Hanover, the former to commence November 19th, 1869, and the latter December 13th, 1869. Judge Russell will preside.

Wilmington Star.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tucker, of Rockingham county, aged 110, drew her pension last week at Raleigh, as the widow of a Revolutionary soldier.

Goldboro Messenger.

The "last load" of Peaches was brought to town last week and sold for $1 per bushel. They were large and very good, considering the lateness of the season.—Ruth Vindicator.

It is a fashionable sport among the young girls of Fond du Lac, Wis., to collect on the sidewalk and compel their young gentlemen friends to go into the muddy street, but a local paper calls the practice "soiled cussedness with the scum on."

A party which recently went to the upper waters of the Cuba on a fishing excursion, not finding the sport with hook and line sufficiently exciting, exploded a small charge of giant powder in the water. The effect was astonishing—all the fish, in the immediate vicinity, large and small, being instantly killed.

EX-PRESIDENT PIERCE.—Let it always be a white stone in the memory of Franklin Pierce that he gathered around him the ablest Cabinet a President ever had. Wm. L. Marcy, James Guthrie, Jefferson Davis, and Caleb Cushing were intellectually the ablest men of their day. The best brain in the Cabinet is an example profitable to follow. Moreover, under Mr. Pierce's administration, the diplomatic tone of this republic was instinct with Americanism. Mr. Marcy's administration of the State Department remains unequalled, and the nearer we come to the copying of it the better it will be for our affairs to-day.

A REMEDY FOR HEADACHE.—Sulphuret of carbon is said to be an excellent remedy against the headache, especially when it is of a nervous or nervous character. It is used by placing a wad of cotton saturated with this material in a bottle, and applying its open mouth to the temple, or part affected. The pricking sensation which is at first experienced is soon followed by relief from the pain.

COSTLY SPORT.—The Supreme Judicial Court in session at Dover, week before last, was occupied three days with the trial of the case of Ricker vs. Freeman—an action brought by the plaintiff against the defendant for injuries sustained—eleven years ago, when the parties were school boys of about twelve years of age. The evidence showed that during the recess of the school which they attended, the boys were "skylarking" on the stairs, in the course of which Freeman threw Ricker so violently that he fell upon some hooks in the wall, one of which entered his neck and did him so much injury that he has never recovered from the effects of it.

The damages were laid at $5,000, and the action has been deferred till this late day when the parties became of age. The jury rendered a verdict for the plaintiff, and gave him damages to the amount of $3,250. No notice was imputed to the defendant, but the act for which he is made to pay so smartly was the result of the rough play in which school boys frequently indulge.

Concord (N. H.) Patriot.

A DESERVED HONOR.—We are pleased to learn that the French Government intends presenting Mr. Laon Schisano the French consul at this port, with the Cross of the Legion of Honor, as a deserved honor for his self-sacrificing conduct in remaining on board the French corvette Curieux in Hampton Roads, while the yellow fever was decimating her officers and crew. The case has been favorably represented to the Emperor, and is now under consideration.—Norfolk Virginian.

A railroad is to be constructed over Mount St. Gothard. Forty millions are already subscribed, being two-thirds of the capital required. The city of Genoa subscribed ten millions.

Mr. Maurice Strakosch has concluded an engagement with Miss Adelina Patti for the season of 1871-72 in this country.

The Atlanta (Ga.) Intelligencer complains that $500 to $1,000 bills are being sent there for the purchase of cotton, and it fears it is a Northern trick, resorted to for the purpose of endeavoring to break down the cotton market.

Wm. Cherry, Radical, was elected to the Senate in Pitt county by 125 majority, vice D. J. Rich, Radical, deceased.

The Asheville Pioneer says that the Directors of the Western N. C. R. R. have made a proposition to the Cincinnati, Charleston and Cumberland Gap R. R. to complete the unfinished portion of that road, and that the proposition has been accepted.

MALICIOUS ASSAULT.—On Tuesday last a most outrageous assault was made on Mr. John E. Hughes, residing about three miles from this place, by Aaron Meadows, a negro boy in Mr. H's employment. They had a little difficulty. Hughes had turned away, when the negro struck him with an iron bar. The negro is under bail.—Chatham Tribune.

The Prince of Wales has just laid the first stone of a new asylum for idiots. The Independent remarks "there is something rather appropriate about that performance."

MR. DAVIS'S ARRIVAL IN BALTIMORE. Mr. Davis returns in greatly improved health, but seemed much pained to hear of the death of ex-President Pierce, in whose cabinet he held the portfolio of war. Mr. Davis's family remain in Europe. The knowledge that Mr. Davis had arrived by the Baltimore drew together a large crowd at the wharf, but it was quite dark before passengers left the ship, and many were disappointed in not seeing him, though a considerable number remained for some time outside the pier. It was about 7 o'clock Mr. Davis and other passengers landed. Mr. Davis walked to the ferry-boat, on which he crossed over to Fell's Point, and taking a city passenger railway car, went to Barnum's City Hotel, where he at once withdrew to his room, but during the evening was waited on by several friends. Mr. Davis registered at the hotel as Jefferson Davis of Mississippi.

NEGRO KILLED.—Cyrus Burgess was accidentally killed in this place, on Sabbath last, by the falling of a well sweep. Late in the night, he went to a well to draw water, and in doing so the well-sweep fell and struck him on the head, mashing in the skull, which caused his instant death.

Kingstree Star.

DON'T LIKE THE TAXES.—A Raleigh editor addicted to smoking, complains that "our pipe has been seized and bound over to appear at the next term of the United States Court because the man who owned the tobacco didn't have a revenue stamp on his plantation fence. Revenue feller said stills had worms which were subject to taxation, and the fence was a worm fence, and had to pay $400 license fee for running (around a lot)." Evidently the "tar-heels" don't take to taxes.

The last proposition comes from a Chattanooga paper, which wants the national capital removed to Lookout Mountain. It is said that distilleries are rather numerous in those mountains.

The Nashville Times says that the watch presented to Lafayette by Washington, and stolen in that city in 1825, has recently been discovered in a pawnbroker's window in a western city.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Fall and its Dangers.

Animal as well as vegetable life is powerfully affected by the great atmospheric change that takes place in the Fall. But for the flowers, the foliage and the herbs of the field there is no help. Their time has come and die they must. It is otherwise with man. For him the means of reinvigoration have been provided by skill and science. To recruit his exhausted energies and fortify himself against the disorders generated by the sudden depression of temperature and the unwholesome exhalations of Autumn, let him tone his nervous system, invigorate his digestion and give energy to his appetite with HOSLETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. He may then face the morbid influences of the season fearlessly. The chilling night dews and heavy morning mists will have no power to make him shiver and burn, to affect his liver, to disorder his stomach or his bowels, to rack his joints with rheumatism, or to render any latent element of disease in his system active and dangerous. To the sufferer from general debility, whether constitutional or arising from other causes,—this potent vegetable specific is earnestly recommended. And let it be remembered that physical weakness opens the door to all maladies. Vigor is the chief defence of the human structure against all causes of disease, and HOSLETTER'S BITTERS may be truly pronounced the safest and surest of all invigorants. It is the most genial of all vegetable tonics, and is admirably adapted to the wants and weaknesses of the more delicate sex, as well as to the ailments of men.

The Tournament at Rock Hill.

On last Friday, we had the pleasure of being present at the Tournament at Rock Hill, which, for its success and brilliancy, exceeded our most sanguine expectations. At an early hour we arrived at the pretty little village, and at once betook ourselves to the Gordon House in order to obtain refreshments after our morning's ride. And what good things were set before us; nothing that could tempt the appetite was wanting, and our hospitable host was the embodiment of politeness. Both he and his good wife seemed to vie with each other in contributing to our comfort and enjoyment.

Well, at last, breakfast was over, and the streets then presented a scene of gaiety and excitement. At about half-past ten we repaired to the field of action, but it was yet too early for the "actors" themselves, so that we had ample time to notice the arena and its surroundings. Over a thousand persons, we suppose, were present, ranged on each side of the course round which a rope was extended to keep off intruders. The course itself, was a hundred yards. There were three posts from which the "rings" were suspended, set at equal distances—30 yards apart. But, music's inspiring strains are heard, and in very "knightly" style the "hilters" appear, escorted by the marshals and herald of the day, all handsomely mounted. On they came, and the glittering dresses of the Knights and their handsomely caparisoned horses, carried one back to the days of chivalry and romance. As they rode round, that their horses might become accustomed to the music, we counted their number—26 Knights, 8 marshals and the herald. On one side a stage was erected on which the judges were seated—Col. Jones, Mr. London, Capt. Hutchinson, Mr. Green and Mr. Ratteree. In front of this, the herald (Mr. Kirkpatrick) took his stand. He was dressed in a handsome costume of royal purple, small black velvet cape trimmed with silver lace, cocked hat and plume. Soon, in loud tones he announced the first rider, "Knight of the Silver Cross." On he came, greeted by cheers on every side. And now they follow in quick succession. We regret we were unable to obtain the names of all the Knights, as we would have liked to have named each one and described his dress, but as that is impossible, we will particularize none save those who were successful.

The first tilt is over, and escorted by the herald, the whole body draw up in front of the judges to hear their decision. The run was to be made in eight seconds, we believe but few were over the appointed time. The riding was very fine indeed, and allowing for the agitation caused by the gaze of so many "bright eyes," especially when we remember the "chosen one" was present, each acquitted himself with credit. The decisions are heard and filing round to their places, the tilting commenced again. Three times they ran, and now, the prizes are to be awarded. A crowd forward to the stage in expectation and excitement. The following gentlemen received the prizes and rode forward to name their ladies:

"Knight of the Golden Circle" crowned Miss Jennie Heath Queen of Love and Beauty; "Knight of the Lone Star," Miss Jennie Steele, First Maid of Honor; "Knight of the Golden Fleece" received the third prize, but presented it to the "Knight of the Silver Cross," who crowned Miss Ada Caldwell Second Maid of Honor; and then the "Knight of King's Mountain" crowned Miss Frie Third Maid of Honor.

Mr. Hart, of Yorkville, the orator of the day, in a graceful manner addressed the vast assembly. His speech was short but to the point, and he retired amid prolonged cheers.

And now the beautiful Queen, with her Maids of Honor, became the judges of the ensuing contest for a handsome saddle. Many new Knights entered the lists in this contest; but, again the "Lone Star" was successful. While we congratulate the fortunate Knight, we confess to a little disappointment. Our sympathies were all aroused in behalf of the "boys"—"Knights of Bleeding Hearts" and "The Red, White and Blue"—Masters Pride and Irwin. How the little fellows did ride. Never mind, Sirs Knights, try again and we promise for you a brilliant success in the future, and the little ladies in whose favor you rode, the disappointed now, may look forward to the day when they may be crowned by your hands; perchance with—"orange blossoms."

The Queen, with her Maids, being conducted to a carriage by their favored Knights, were escorted by the whole body to their homes—and the Tournament is over. But, another scene of gaiety is still on hand, and at an early hour, the large hall belonging to Messrs. Allen & Barber, is crowded to its utmost by the pleasure seekers. Bright

"The Lamp shows o'er fair women, and brave men.
A thousand hearts beat happily; and when music arose with its voluptuous swell,
Soft eyes looked love to eyes which spate again,
And all went merry as a marriage bell."

Fierce looking "Turks" forgot their fire while gazing with admiring eyes upon the bewitching beauty of some fair haired "Grecian girl." Dark-eyed "Gypsies" true to their character, wandered here, there and everywhere. "Spring" with her beautiful flowers scattered fragrance around, and the soft, gentle beauty of the "Evening Star" was quickly followed by the splendor of "Night." The "Child of the Regiment" seemed as much a favorite as ever, as with her little drum suspended from her shoulder, she told us she was "drumming up beans," while the little "Busy Bee" buzzed around busily, this time dispersing instead of gathering sweets.

The supper was superb, and the dancing was kept up until the "wee small hours." Long will our pleasant trip be remembered. The attention we received, as the representative of the TIMES, was flattering indeed, and we return our thanks to our friends, for this new proof of their regard. We were obliged to remain over until the evening train on Saturday, so spent our time in looking around. We are glad to see the little village in such a prosperous condition, and our old townsmen, McLeod & Steele, who, in their new home, are as flourishing as ever. We would have lingered longer, but duty was loud in her call, and we were forced to listen to her voice. The old routine of business is now engaging us, while the Tournament and Ball are not forgot, though numbered with the things of the past.

SWINDLING THE NEGRO SOLDIERS.—The colored soldiers and their representatives, ever since the war, have been employing their dear friends, the Radical Claim Agents, to present and collect their bounty and pension claims at the War Department. It now appears that the Agents have been systematically swindling both the claimants and the Government. Upon proof of this fact, the Attorney General has decided that the Secretary of War is under no obligations to transact any business with or recognize the rascally Agents hereafter, no matter what power of attorney or other authority they may present. Justice, however, will not be satisfied unless the villains shall not only be officially ignored at the Department but prosecuted and sentenced to the penitentiary. Many a Radical Agent evidently has no manner of doubt, that by advocating the right of the negroes to vote, he makes them amenable for swindling them out of their last dollar, and leaves a heavy balance of gratitude in his own favor.—Courier Journal.

WILMINGTON, Oct. 11.—The case of the "Cuba" was opened this morning by G. P. Lowrey of New York, who appeared with Gen. Davis, late Attorney General of the Confederate States, and Judge O. P. Meares of this city, for the Republic of Cuba, by reading the commission of Commodore Higgins, as an officer of the Cuban Navy and also a formal protest by him against the excess of jurisdiction by the civil courts over his ship, she being a public ship of war of a recognized nation. After stating the character of the vessel, Commodore Higgins solemnly protests in the name and for the honor of Cuba, against any detention or interference with his ship. The conclusion of the protest is as follows:

"And now, having, for the dignity and honor of the Republic of Cuba, made protest against the exercise of a jurisdiction over public ships unknown among nations, and being willing and desirous to have the truth known to all nations, persons, and particularly the citizens of the United States, and do declare that the said vessel has not in any of her perpetrations, offended against the neutrality laws of the United States of America in the manner charged or in any other manner, and I aver that said vessel is now in the same condition, in every respect as when she was purchased from the United States, in June 1869, except a few immaterial alterations, not relating to her character or use as a war vessel, and except further, that the said vessel, since the said purchase and while without the limits of the United States, and more than twenty days after the departure therefrom, and we had entered a British port and had been there seized by the public authorities.

The vessel had been examined and discharged, and had cleared therefrom; and then, and not till then, was she sold and delivered to the Republic of Cuba, and was fitted out and armed upon the high seas, and beyond the jurisdiction of the United States and all other nations; that all the proceedings aforesaid of the rights and dignity of the United States, were conducted in a careful and true respect therefor, under the sanction of well established principles of public laws.

[Signed] EDWARD HIGGINS, Commodore of Cuban Navy, Commander Cuban Steamship "Cuba" In order to a law the government to produce witnesses, the United States Commissioner, Rutherford, continued the case till Saturday next 10 o'clock.

CHEERING SUCCESS.
LARGE DIVIDEND OF IN-SURANCE.
The Piedmont Life Insurance Company, of Virginia, has DECLARED A DIVIDEND OF FORTY PER CENT.
on its Life Policies, which have paid two annual premiums, and the same is available on such policies at next renewal to absorb loans, or reduce cash payments.
The dividend could have safely been larger, but with the
which has ever guided this company, it has deemed it proper to hold a surplus beyond the reserve fund.
The company is now only in the eighteenth month
of its active operation—yet
HAS ISSUED 3,000 POLICIES which is a success really remarkable, and far ahead of any company of like period in America or Europe; while its handsome dividend shows the economy of its administration, and the UNDOUBTED PERMANENCY OF ITS SUCCESS.

S. B. SEXTON'S CELEBRATED
PATENT BALTIMORE PARTOR HEATERS AND GAS BURNERS.

For Anthracite or Bituminous coal, have been in successful operation for the last ten years, and have proved to be the best fire-place heaters manufactured and put in operation. They are getting to be generally used, often in the place of furnaces, for heating the lower and upper rooms in dwellings, and offices. Two or three Stoves heating the largest dwellings, and besides, are quite ORNAMENTAL and ILLUMINATING, having all the beauty and showiness of an open grate fire, but are more ECONOMICAL, CLEANER, and RADIATING A LARGER AMOUNT OF HEAT. We can refer to thousands of families who have them in use.
We manufacture our own COOKING STOVES,
and we guarantee them to be equal to any sold for heating and cooking. We have Stoves made and with large ovens, and are superior Stoves for baking. We are getting out some new patterns of Cooking Stoves, that will burn Bituminous coal, hard coal, or wood. They will have a beautiful finish, and will stand among the No. 1 Cook Stoves.
Our Cooking Stoves are Baltimore made, and we guarantee the plates. Our Cooking Ranges are pronounced the best and cheapest in the market—baking of all kinds can be done in our Ranges as quickly and equally as well as in a brick oven. We will manufacture S. B. SEXTON'S new patent Hot-Air Furnaces, warranted to burn from 30 to 10 hours with one firing.
Thankful to our friends and the public for their past favors, we solicit a continuance of their patronage.
